Support area performing arts

Let our concertgoers know about your business or organization. Place an ad in our program and show your support for the arts. As a local non-profit chamber choir which presents high-quality performances of choral music of many styles and periods, we also support educational outreach for young conductors and students.

Your ad will appear in both the holiday and spring programs (a total of 4 dates) in various areas of Bucks County, PA. Those who place full or half-page ads will also have an opportunity to have their logo included in a slideshow on the homepage of our new website.
