CARRYING THE LIGHT

CONCERT PROGRAM ADVERTISING OPPORTUNITIES

2026-2027

Cantus Novus is dedicated to the performance of the highest quality choral literature from the Renaissance to the present day.

ADVERTISING OPPORTUNITIES

Support area performing arts

Let our concertgoers know about your business or organization. Place an ad in our program and show your support for the arts. As a local non-profit chamber choir which presents high-quality performances of choral music of many styles and periods, we also support educational outreach for young conductors and students.

Your ad will appear both in the holiday and spring programs (a total of 6 dates) in various areas of Bucks County, PA. Those who place full or half-page ads will also have an opportunity to have their logo included in a slideshow on our website.

CARRYING THE LIGHT

As the days grow shorter and the nights grow colder, Cantus Novus brightens the season with their December concert, "Carrying the Light." Angels sing, stars shine with promise, and even in the longest night of the year, we remember the light within each one of us.
